

BROKEN PROMISES

Keeping Hope Alive

Equality Hall

77 Raymond Street Hanley
Stoke-on-Trent, ST1 4DP

Conference on the Balfour Declaration & its continuing impact on the lives of Palestinians

Join Sumud Palestine on Sunday 29th October 2017 from 12.30 – 5.30 (starting with lunch) for food, talks, film, stalls & discussion to mark the 100th anniversary of the Balfour Declaration. Speakers include:

Mohammed Mukhaimar Palestinian-British psychologist, born & raised in Gaza, member of the steering group of the UK-Palestine Mental Health Network. With Angela Glendenning he established Sumud Palestine & he also initiated & now mentors the Palestinian Association of Cognitive & Behavioural Therapies. He works for the NHS.

Haim Bresheeth retired from the University of East London in 2002 & is now Professorial Research Associate, School of Oriental & African Studies. Scholar, filmmaker, photographer & activist, his books include Introduction to the Holocaust (with S. Hood) & Conflict & Contemporary Visual Culture in Palestine & Israel (with H. Hammami).

Brian Brown was administrative director of the Christian Institute of Southern Africa when he & it were banned in 1977 by the apartheid regime. A Methodist minister & member of Kairos-Britain, his autobiography Born to be Free contrasts apartheid in South Africa & the ongoing search for freedom of the Palestinian people.

Bernard Regan Visiting Research Fellow, St Mary's University. Author of The Balfour Declaration: Mandate & Resistance in Palestine. As an Executive Committee member of the Palestine Solidarity Campaign he led many delegations to Palestine & for 25 years was on the executive of the National Union of Teachers.

Stalls including Palestinian produce, pottery & textiles, books, leaflets & information

Suggested donation £5

Sign up for our mailinglist at: <http://sumudpalestine.org.uk/join-our-mailing-list/>

www.facebook.com/sumudpalestine/